Review the back of this form for Refund and Cancellation Policies

REFUND POLICY

Prepayment is required (with the exception of judicatory sponsorship where payments will be negotiated with judicatories).

Full refund of registration fee can be given to registrants who notify the Minnesota Council of Churches of cancellation within five (5) working days prior to their registered training.

Registrants who wish to cancel in fewer than five working days of their registered training or fail to attend their registered training have the following options:

- A. Individual will be allowed to register at no additional charge for a scheduled training within the next 12 months (if available), or
- B. Individual may be replaced at a workshop scheduled within the next 12 months by a substitute participant with no additional fee, or
- C. Individual can receive a 50% refund.

CANCELLATION POLICY

A minimum of 23 people are required for each training. Training will be cancelled if 23 registrations have not been received by the Minnesota Council of Churches registration deadline. Registered participants will be notified and fees will be refunded or applied to a subsequent training at the participant's request.
